

Brown Collection Provenance and Information

This loose collection of papers was given to the Brevard County (Florida) Genealogical Society about the year 2000. The name of the donor has been lost. There are two photographs of unidentified people, one photo of Ingrid Boe, and the rest are legal and financial documents.

There may be some connection to the Grinnell family because the Rohe-Grinnell Bible also is from Connecticut, and was stored with these Brown family papers in Florida.

The dates of the documents range from 1914 to 1960.
